

A BIG MAN

One of America's noted lecturers said, "When you go around with a face on you long enough to eat oats out of a churn, and can't meet your fellowman with smile, it is time to back off of the stage for your career is finished."

There is no better way to bring a smile to a customer's face than to save him ten dollars.

Let us use the tape line on you, and make you one of our suits or overcoats to your measure, out of materials that fairly sparkle with value and we will bring the smile to your profile which means satisfaction, and the difference saved will take you and the whole family to the movies all winter.

Sketches of Little OLD NEW YORK by Wm. J. Myer

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Fred Beane, who has been stage-managing a play in London, returned to New York one day last week. He walked nervously down the gang plank where a friend was waiting for him. The friend asked him about the success of the play.

"Never mind now!" replied Beane. "None of that Zeppelin stuff in mine." "How did your star take on there?" "Any place that has bombs falling every week is no place for me," said Beane.

"How long do you think the play will run over there?"

"One almost got me. I just ducked into a London hotel in time," he said. And with several quick jumps to one side he leaped into a taxicab and told the driver to go up a dark street and turn on all the faucets.

Charles Hanson Towne, the poet, met a friend the other day hurrying along the south side of Gramercy Park. He walked several blocks with him to a telegraph office to see what the excitement was about. A telegram was handed to the operator which read:

"I announce with grief the death of Uncle William. Come quickly to read will; I believe we are his heirs." The clerk counted the words and said: "There are two too many words sir."

"All right; cut out 'with grief' was the answer."

When Fred Dayton, the advertising plutocrat, was publicly disseminating for a theater in Hartford, Conn., he was on easy going terms with all the city editors and they published his "blurbs" almost as they were written.

It was this laxity, however, that caused one city editor to do a lot of explaining to his managing editor. One night a New York show opened in Hartford and Dayton prepared a glowing account of its acceptance and wound up by telling how the entire house was packed from the stage to the lobby.

At the bottom of the article he noted in parenthesis: "Between us, Al, old boy, there were about ten people in the house and they came in on passes."

The copy was received on the "dead line" for an edition and the city editor rushed it through without reading copy and it appeared with the notation, parenthesis and all.

Charlie Falls, the only artist in captivity with bangs, was tripping a few light fanatics who chanced near him the other night in a studio apartment near Columbus Circle. The host was Arthur William Brown, also an artist.

Walter Enright was talking to Brown when Falls gracefully one-stepped up to them got out of tune with the music and after a few gyrations kerfopped to the floor.

Enright had never met him and as he picked himself up, Brown said: "Mr. Falls meet Mr. Enright."

All of which might be called hair-trigger stuff!

Missouri produces more song writers, so the Tin Pan Alley experts say, than any other state. The latest recruit from Missouri to win success on Broadway is Percy Wenrich, who was born in Joplin and is proud of it. He had a hard time interesting anyone in New York but finally got Dolly Connolly, an actress, to sing one of his songs. It became a hit. She is now Mrs. Percy Wenrich. Denrich's latest hit is "Come Back Dixie." He also wrote "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet."

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
